SPEND A MORNING AT LA RESIDENCE

Napa Valley, California – A simple breakfast, elegant and delicious. Nothing quite sets the mood like a light, freshly cooked breakfast before setting out on the town for a full day of exploring in beautiful Napa Valley. At La Residence, a little taste of paradise situated in the heart of Napa Valley, the owners realize this as much as its visitors. Every morning, La Residence owners Craig Clausson and David Jackson rise and prepare a fresh and beautiful breakfast, different every day, and personally serve the residents of this remarkable estate.

This is no production line, no buffet, no do-it-yourself, find-it-yourself enterprise. No, this is an attempt to simplify breakfast. There's no need to skip the meal at this resort, not when breakfast might include fresh blueberry pancakes, French toast, or cinnamon rolls. With every thing on the plate coming directly from the kitchen as it's made, La Residence creates an elegant experience as close to home as any resort could provide. And with fresh fruit alongside every breakfast,

FRENCH TOAST

12 eggs
1 cup flour
1/4 cup sugar
Vanilla to taste
1 pint whipping cream

1. Combine the first four ingredients and mix until smooth. Add whipping cream. If batter is too thick, thin with a little Half & Half.

2. Cut a sourdough baguette into slices approximately 3/4 inch thick.

3. Dip slices into batter and squeeze to insure the batter soaks through the bread.

4. Place the bread on a well greased griddle and cook slowly until bread is slightly crispy on the outside and custard like on the inside.

5. Place three to four pieces on the serving plate with fruit and sprinkle lightly with powdered sugar. Top with bananas and strawberries and a bit of syrup.

With unique appointments in each of the 25 guest rooms including one-of-a-kind artwork, luxurious French fabrics and antiques, La Residence offers old world charm set amongst two acres of exquisite grounds. Situated in Napa Valley, La Residence is located in the heart of wine country and is the hidden treasure of the Valley. LA RESIDENCE: 4066 Howard Lane, 707.253.0337, www.laresidence.com.
