GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER AT LA RESIDENCE: THE TRAVEL CHANNEL THIS FALL

Napa Valley, California – Coming this fall, La Residence, a property of unparalleled luxury and personality, will be featured on the new show, “World’s Greatest!...”, a show dedicated to illuminating the public about the world’s greatest products and properties, airing on the Travel Channel.

Shot in mid-July, La Residence will be a featured segment on the show, produced by renowned production company Discover Entertainment Group. The segment will concentrate on the unique features that La Residence offers its visitors and the fascinating way that its two owners, David Jackson and Craig Clausson, make La Residence one of the most interesting and rewarding places to stay in beautiful Napa Valley.

Look for the “World’s Greatest!...” segment to air this fall on the Travel Channel. Check local listings for exact date and time. And afterwards, keep in mind that fall brings harvest season in wine country and is the best time of the year to come see the miracle of California wine in its native land.

Using national cable networks, Discover Entertainment Group produces informative and educational television programs for targeted audiences. With two new series already in production, Discover Entertainment Group is quickly becoming a leader in the television production industry. With an award-winning team of producers with years of experience making popular television, Discover Entertainment Group is a 21st Century television production company dedicated to bringing its viewers informative, educational, and entertaining television through national cable networks.

With unique appointments in each of the 25 guest rooms including one-of-a-kind artwork, luxurious French fabrics and antiques, La Residence offers old world charm set amongst two acres of exquisite grounds. Situated in Napa Valley, La Residence is located in the heart of wine country and is the hidden treasure of the Valley. LA RESIDENCE: 4066 Howard Lane, 707.253.0337, www.laresidence.com.
